Roses are read, violets are blue, if you hurt us, weâ€™re coming for you.

The deeply secretive Black Coats have been exacting vengeance on men who hurt girls and women for years. And Thea has just received an invitation to join them.

This is the opportunity sheâ€™s been waiting for to finally get justice for her cousin Natalie, whose killer went free.

Thea dives head first into the group, training every day with other girls whose stories rival hers. Together they carry out Balancingsâ€™ acts of revenge guaranteed to teach a lesson. With every predator threatened, every blackmailer exposed, and every date rapist punished, Thea can feel herself getting closer to avenging Natalieâ€™s death.

But then the Balancings begin to escalate in brutality, and Thea discovers that the Black Coats are not all they seem to be. Thea must confront just how far sheâ€™s willing to go for justiceâ€™ and what kind of justice Natalie, and Thea herself, deserve. Because when the line between justice and revenge is razor thin, itâ€™s hard not to get cut.
